Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 5, 6, 14, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Van Voorhis U.S. Patent 2,648,160.

Van Voorhis disclosed a toy comprising a shaft (1); a roller (2) attached to a first end of the shaft; a housing (5) attached to a second opposing end of the shaft; a front end (horse's mouth) coupled to the housing; a sound pad (8) coupled to the housing; the roller comprising at least one wheel (2) and an axle (3); at least one decorative member (strap) coupled to the housing.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4, 8, and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Van Voorhis in view of Thornell U.S. Patent 5,356,329.

It is noted that Van Voorhis failed to teach the use of a light pad coupled to the housing as set forth in claim 4; and a handle coupled to the housing as set forth in claims 8 and 13. However, Thornell disclosed a rocking toy comprising a light pad (7) coupled to the housing (6) of the toy, and a handle (curved handle as shown in Fig. 1).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the housing (5) of Van Voorhis with the light pad (7) and the handle as taught by Thornell for the purpose of attracting attention of the user and controlling the head of the horse with ease.

Claims 7, 9-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Van Voorhis.

It is noted that Van Voorhis failed to specifically teach decorative member being coupled to the housing to resemble a jet, an automobile, and a wing as set forth in these claims. However, such features are merely for decorative purpose and it would have been a matter of design choice to modify the housing of Van Voorhis with any particular decorative member to provide different looks.
